OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

Dated 11-17th August 1954.

No. S.P.S. 28942. The Memorandum No. Par. 246(45), dated 21st May 1954, received from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Works, Housing and Supply, New Delhi, regarding inspection of goods by the Government Inspector prior to despatch, is published herewith for the information and guidance of all the Indenting Officers of this Government.

I. P. MALLAPPA,
Secretary, S.P.C.

Copy of the Memorandum No. Par. 246(45), dated 24th May 1954, from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Works, Housing and Supply, New Delhi, to all State Governments.

Subject:—Despatch of goods by suppliers to consignees without prior inspection—Measures to avoid such irregularities.

The undersigned is directed to say that it has been brought to the notice of this Ministry that, in contravention of the Inspection Clause in the contract, some suppliers despatch the stores to consignees without getting them inspected by the Government Inspector. In order to ensure that uninspected stores are not despatched, the Indenting Departments are requested to ensure that they do not accept goods unless they have already received a copy of the inspection note either from the Inspector direct or from the firm with the Railway receipt or the despatch memo, in the case of local delivery.
